

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

This form can be completed online and then printed.

The Michigan Silversmiths Guild (MSG) was founded in 1948 and since that date have worked to broaden our members' knowledge of the craft of silversmithing and metalsmithing. Members' have a variety of interests that include jewelry making, hollowware, flatware, sculpture, as well as decorative and functional objects. Membership to MSG is open to all persons at every level of proficiency. Discounted memberships are also available to students enrolled in a metals program at a fully accredited college or university.

The Michigan Silversmiths Guild offers:

- Workshops taught by artists and teachers who are "tops" in their field.
- FREE lectures, usually associated with the workshops, that are also open to the public.
- Discounted student workshop scholarships.
- Newsletters that are published quarterly.
- Guild website access for information on exhibition opportunities, membership forums, classified ads, as well as links to other events.
- FREE space on the Guild Membership Gallery website to load up to 10 images of a member's work.
- Participation in the "Jewelry+Objects Exhibition", a juried biannual exhibition in which members participate in the juried process as well as an opportunity to show and sell their work at the annual Ann Arbor Art Fair.
- Annual All-Membership Meeting and Tool Swap.
