Some Like it Hot: An Introduction to Enameling with Marissa Saneholtz

March 31, 2018 • 10:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.

Bowling Green State University

Bowling Green, Ohio

Need to spice up your jewelry and metal objects with some color? In this workshop we will explore a few of the many possibilities to adorn metal surfaces with enamel. We will first learn the basics of enamel application and firing techniques and continue to push these “introductory skills” to create one-of-a-kind works of art.

All levels are welcome. Your workshop fee includes lunch and materials. (use of enamels and copper discs.)

About Marissa Saneholtz: Marissa Saneholtz makes narrative based jewelry and objects using humor and sarcasm to comment on gender roles in American society. In 2008, Marissa earned her BFA in 3-dimensional design from Bowling Green State University and her MFA in 2011 in metals and jewelry design from East Carolina University. For two and a half years after graduating she instructed metalsmithing, jewelry and enameling courses in Certaldo, Italy for East Carolina University’s Italy Intensives Study Abroad Program. From 2013 to 2015 she worked at J. Cotter Galleries and Studio in Vail, Colorado as gallery manager and assistant studio manager. She is currently Visiting Assistant Professor at Appalachian State University, in Boone, NC

She has been published in several books, including Art Jewelry Today II edited by Jeffery Snyder and Humor in Craft by Brigitte Martin. Her work has been exhibited both nationally and internationally and can be seen on display at in the Dorothy McKenzie Permanent Collection at Bowling Green State University in Bowling Green, OH as well as at the Racine Art Museum in Racine, WI.
